

NMHG Launches New Global Website

GREENVILLE, N.C. (May 3, 2011) – NACCO Materials Handling Group, Inc. (NMHG) announced today the launch of a new website, www.nmhg.com, which reinforces the company's position as a global leader in the materials handling industry.

The website provides an improved interface for NMHG to communicate with its target audiences worldwide. The website also facilitates better communication with current and potential employees, suppliers, dealers, investors, media, and the general public. Site visitors will understand the operational breadth and the unique advantages NMHG provides.

"With our resources strategically deployed around the world, we require a website that allows customers to experience our global capabilities and present our offerings in an integrated fashion," said Colin Wilson, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of NMHG. "This website showcases the advantages of our Yale® and Hyster® lift truck brands, and outlines the benefits of programs for customers, suppliers, consultants and dealers."

A world leader in the lift truck industry, NACCO Materials Handling Group, Inc. (NMHG) designs, engineers, manufactures, sells and services a comprehensive line of lift trucks and aftermarket parts marketed globally under the Hyster® and Yale® brand names. Headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, NMHG employs approximately 5,000 people worldwide and is a wholly owned subsidiary of NACCO Industries, Inc. (NYSE: NC).
