

NMHG Presents United Way of Pitt County with $8,000 Check

GREENVILLE, N.C. (May 23, 2011) – NMHG presented an $8,000 check to United Way of Pitt County during the East Carolina University (ECU) baseball game versus Old Dominion University on Tuesday, May 17. The donations were allocated to the United Way of Pitt County for every homerun hit this season.

"NMHG is honored to continue our partnership with United Way of Pitt County through another ECU athletic season," said Jonathan Dawley, VP of marketing, NMHG. "We are fortunate to be able to maintain our community contributions and witness firsthand the positive effects of our donations."

Renee Blount, executive director of United Way of Pitt County, was on the field to receive the check from Dawley.

"We would like to extend a large thank you to NMHG and its employees for their support of United Way of Pitt County," said Blount. "NMHG's unwavering dedication and loyalty to our community will not go unnoticed by Pitt County residents."

Founded more than 50 years ago, United Way of Pitt County is a volunteer-driven, nonprofit organization that seeks to advance the common good by focusing on the keys to a good life – education, income, health and neighbors helping neighbors. United Way of Pitt County is a member of the United Way Worldwide, located in Alexandria, Va. United Way Worldwide is an independent, national organization that serves approximately 1,400 other United Ways across the country.

A world leader in the lift truck industry, NACCO Materials Handling Group, Inc. (NMHG) designs, engineers, manufactures, sells and services a comprehensive line of lift trucks and aftermarket parts marketed globally under the Hyster® and Yale® brand names. Headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, NMHG employs approximately 4,500 people worldwide and is a wholly owned subsidiary of NACCO Industries, Inc. (NYSE: NC).

###

For more information, please contact:

Brett Turner
Jackson Marketing Group
864-272-3014
brett.turner@jacksonmg.com